- CRUST, R. N.: Liquor Traffic in British India; or has the British Government done its duty? Trübner & Co. London, 1888, 56 pp. An answer to Archdeacon Farrar, and Mr. Samuel Smith, M. P.
- DORCHESTER, DANIEL, D.D.: Liquor Problem in all Ages. Phillips & Hunt, N. Y., and San Francisco, 1888, 728 pp.
- MORRISON, WILLIAM DOUGLAS: Crime and its Causes. Sonnenschein & Co., London, 1891, 231 pp. Observe particularly page 64 and seq. This work does not deal particularly with crime and its relation to alcoholism, but incidentally there are many references made to that subject in its pages.

DOW, N.: Result of Prohibitory Legislation. North American Review, 1882, 11 pp.

ELLIOT, REV. HENRY L.: What are the principal causes of crime, considered from a social point of view? Trans. National Association for promotion of Social Science, 1868. 1869, pp. 324-337.
